Results for the First Half of the Fiscal Year Ending March 2023

November 11, 2022 SHiDAX CORPORATION (TSE Code:4837)

Consolidated Financial Results for 1H FY3/23

Financial Highlights for the First Half

Continued to achieve significant profit growth

The results of the management reforms implemented to date were apparent. Net sales remained at previous level, but profits continued to significantly increase, despite the impact of the 7th wave of COVID-19, which was the largest epidemic ever, and the steep rise in raw material prices.

First year of medium-term management plan, first half in line with plan

Launched a 3-year medium-term management plan (Re-Growth 2025) starting in the fiscal year under review. Overall performance was favorable, and the first half of the fiscal year ended on schedule (profits slightly exceeded), although there were some upsides and downsides to the first-year plan (earnings forecast) depending on the business segments.

Orders for new contracts also got off to a smooth start

Although the first half of the fiscal year accounted for only a small percentage of the annual plan, the effect of crossselling and strengthened sales development efforts resulted in a steady increase in new contract orders, with all three core businesses recording growth of more than 20% year-on-year

New Contract Order Status

X Since most of the orders, such as bids from local governments, are received in the second half of the year, the percentage of orders received in the first half is small and is heavily weighted toward the second half.

First half: Focused on strategic preparations such as building a sales structure Second half: Started full-scale sales activities toward the "13.7 billion yen" yearly order plan. We will further strengthen sales development and cross-selling that leverage the Group's strengths, such as expertise in 500 types of outsourced operations, with the aim of achieving the order plan, which is the "cornerstone" of our medium-term management plan.

First half: each business received orders at a pace significantly higher than in the previous fiscal year.

| Segment | Unit | YoY change | Situation in the first half |
|--------------------------------|-----------------|------------|---|
| Food Services | Net sales | 122% | Strong start in Contract Division, but weakening slightly in Medical Division → Reorganization of Sales Division and thorough strengthening of sales development capabilities |
| Vehicle Operations Services | No. of vehicles | 128% | According to plan, including strong orders for additional vehicles during the period → Expansion of new sales through establishment of dedicated sales staff and web promotions, etc. |
| Social Services | Net Sales | 137% | Library operations increased significantly, and public school lunches also remained firm. → Roller sales with targets, creation of opportunities through continuing visits |

Toward Consideration of Collaboration in Food Service-Related Businesses

A "Special Committee" will soon be established as a framework for fair consideration of food-related business collaboration.

- The "Special Committee" will be established as an independent consultative body for fair consideration of collaboration in food-related businesses and will broadly examine the possibility of collaboration with companies other than Oisix in a standardized process for similar projects.
- At the same time, the "Business Alliance Review Committee" with Oisix, which will be established as a subcommittee of the Special Committee, will proactively consider collaboration with Oisix without involving a capital transfer.

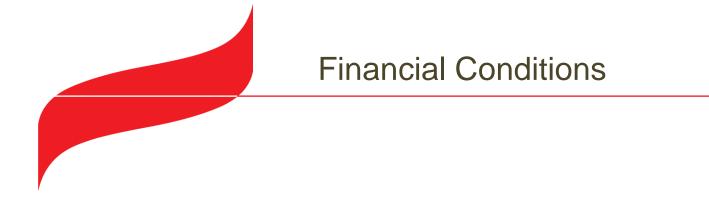

Forecasts for Consolidated Earnings and Dividend

■ No change to consolidated earnings and dividend forecasts announced on May 16, 2022

The full-year forecast has been left unchanged in consideration of the uncertain business environment going forward, including concerns about the simultaneous spread of COVID-19 and influenza, in addition to the impact of the ongoing sharp rise in raw material prices and other factors.
